Tenancy changes

As the tenant, it is your responsibility to advise your property manager of any changes in the tenancy (eg one of the occupants intends on moving out, or a new person intends on moving in).

Information on rent increases

Rent can only be increased in accordance with the rent review terms contained in your lease and you will receive a reminder notice of any increase applied.

Periodic inspections

From time to time, we will conduct routine inspections of the property. You will usually receive one week's notice and we value your cooperation.

Keys

If you change the locks, you must provide your property manager with a key. If you have any other key-related questions (eg lost keys), please speak to your property manager.

Insurance

We strongly recommend that you arrange adequate insurance to cover the contents of the property
